Al-Hussein ibn Muhammad has narrated from Mu'alla' ibn Muhammad from al- Hassan ibn Ali from Hammad ibn 'Uthman who has said the following:

'Once, a man came to Abu 'Abd Allah^{asws} to complain before him (the Imam^{asws}) against one of his companions. In a little while the defendant came in and Abu 'Abd Allah^{asws} asked: 'Why does so and so complains against you?' He replied: 'It is because I asked him for payment of what he owes to me'. He (the narrator) has said that Abu 'Abd Allah^{asws} then sat straight with concern and said: 'It seems as if when you demand for payment of what others owe, you do not consider it maltreating him. Consider what Allah^{azwj} has said in His book: 'They fear dreadful accounting' (13:21). Do you think they fear that Allah^{azwj} will do injustice to them? No, by Allah^{azwj}, that is not the case. They did not fear anything but demand for payment of what is owed to them and Allah^{azwj} has called it (demand for payment) dreadful accounting, thus one who demands payment (harshly) has maltreated him (debtor)'.⁸¹

Muhammad ibn Yahya in a marfu' manner has narrated the following:

'He (the narrator) has said that a man once said to Abu 'Abd Allah^{asws} 'A man of Al-Husayniy people owes me a certain amount. Asking him for payment has become tiring for me. We had an argument about it and I am afraid something may happen between us that will make me sad.' Abu' Abd Allah^{asws} said: 'This is not a proper manner of asking for payment. When you go to him next time sit with him for a long time and remain quiet'. The man has said: 'I followed the instruction and shortly thereafter I received full payment'.⁸²

'Once Abu Jafar^{asws} called one of his servants named Musadif and gave him a thousand dinar. The Imam^{asws} told him to prepare for travelling to Egypt and added, 'The number of my dependents has increased'. He (the narrator) has said that the servant prepared certain items of merchandise along with the traders to go for trade to Egypt. When they arrived near Egypt they met a caravan coming out of Egypt. They asked the outgoing caravan as regards the condition of their merchandise, which was of general nature, in the city.

The outgoing people informed them that no such merchandise was available in the city. They (people of the incoming caravan) made an agreement among themselves on oath not to sell their merchandise for less than a profit of one dinar for each dinar worth of merchandise. After taking possession of their belongings, they returned to al-Madinah and Musadif came to Abu Abd Allah^{asws} with two bagfuls of dinars, each of which had a thousand dinars. He said, 'I pray to Allah^{azwj} to keep my soul in service for your cause, this is the capital and this is the profit.' The Imam^{asws} said: 'This is a great deal of profit. However, what did you do with the merchandise?' He (Musadif) told the story of their agreement on oath. The Imam^{asws} said: 'Allah^{azwj} is free of all defects. Why do you make an agreement on oath against Muslim people not to sell for less than a profit of one dinar for each dinar worth of merchandise?' The Imam^{asws} then took the two bags and said: 'This is my capital and we do not need this profit. The Imam^{asws} said: 'O Musadif, settling with sword is easier than earning by lawful ways'.⁹⁸

A number of our people have narrated from Ahmad ibn Muhammad ibn Khalid from ibn Faddal from al-Hassan ibn Asbat from 'Abd al-Rahman ibn Sayabah who has narrated the following:

'I once said to Abu Abd Allah^{asws}: 'I pray to Allah^{azwj} to keep my soul in service for your^{asws} cause. People say that study of astronomy is not lawful but it is very attractive to me; however, if it is harmful to my religion then I will restrain from anything that can harm me in my religion. If it is not harmful to my religion, by Allah^{azwj}, I like it and I like to study astronomy.'

The Imam^{asws} said: 'It is not as they say it is. It is not harmful to your religion'. The Imam^{asws} then said: 'You study something from which a great deal is not available and a small amount of it is not beneficial. Your calculation is about the rise of the moon'. The Imam^{asws} then asked: 'Do you know how many minutes are between Jupiter and Venus?' I replied: 'No, by Allah^{azwj}, I do not know.' The Imam^{asws} then asked: 'How many minutes are between Venus and the moon?' I replied: 'No, I do not know'. The Imam^{asws} asked: 'Do you know how many minutes are there between the sun and Virgo?' I replied: 'No, by Allah^{azwj}, I have never heard about it from any astronomer'. The Imam^{asws} then asked: 'How many minutes are there between Virgo and protected Tablet?' I replied: 'No, by Allah^{azwj}, I have never heard about it from any astronomer.' The Imam^{asws} said: 'Between each of these to other one is sixty or seventy minutes'; doubt is from 'Abd al-Rahman. The Imam^{asws} then said, 'O 'Abd al-Rahman, this is a calculation. If a man calculates and falls on it (succeeds with accuracy) he will know the reed which is in the middle of brushwood. He will know the number of what is on its right, the number of what is on its left, the number of reeds behind it and the number of what is in front of it until not even a single piece of the reeds of the brushwood will remain unknown to him'.¹²⁹

Ali ibn Ibrahim has narrated from his father from ibn abu 'Umayr from Hisham ibn Salim from abu Ayyub al-Khazzaz from abu Basir who has narrated the following:

'Abu Abd Allah^{asws} has said that Azar, father of Ibrahim^{asws} was an astronomer for Nimrod who did not go out without his command. One night he looked into the stars and in the morning, he said to Nimrod: 'I have seen something very strange'. He asked, 'What is it?' He replied: 'I saw that a child will be born and in his hand our destruction will take place. Very soon he will be conceived by his mother'. The Imam^{asws} said that he was astonished and asked: 'Has any woman conceived with him?' He replied: O that has not happened yet.' The Imam^{asws} said that he then barred women from men and he gathered all women in one city where no man could meet them privately. Azar went to bed with his wife and Ibrahim^{asws} was conceived by his mother. He thought he can be the one of his concern, he sent nurses to examine, and at that time, they could tell if there was anything in the womb. They examined but Allah^{azwj} kept what was in the womb to the back. They said: 'We did not see anything in her womb.' Of the information that he had included that he will be burned in the fire but he did not have the knowledge that Allah^{azwj} will rescue him.

The Imam^{asws} said that when the mother of Ibrahim gave birth, Azar wanted to take him to Nimrod to be killed. His wife said to him: 'Do not take your son to Nimrod for being killed. Allow me to take him to a cave and leave him there until the time of his death comes. You must not become the one to kill your son'. He then agreed. The Imam^{asws} said that she took him to a cave, fed him milk and placed a rock on the opening of the cave, then left him there. Allah^{asws} most made his sustenance in his thumb and he would suck and milk flow from it. He would grow in one day like children grow in one week and he grew in one week like other children grew in one month and in one month he grew like others grew in one year. He remained there as long as Allah^{azwj} Wanted. 'His mother said to his father, 'If you give me permission I will go to see the child'. He gave her permission. She went and found Ibrahim^{as} his eyes shone like two lanterns. She took him and held to her chest, fed him, then went back home. Azar asked about him and she said: 'I buried him in the soil.' She waited and visited Ibrahim^{asws} from time to time, held him to her chest, fed him and returned back home. When he moved she came to him as before from time to time to do what she did before. One time when she wanted to leave, he took hold of her clothes and she asked: 'What is the matter?' He said, 'Take me with you.' She said: 'I must get permission from your father'. The Imam^{asws} said that the mother of Ibrahim^{as} went to Azar and informed him of the story.

He told her: 'Bring him to me, make him sit on the road and when his brothers pass by, bring him along with them. He will not be recognized'. The Imam^{asws} said that brothers of Ibrahim carved idols for sale and sold them in the market. The Imam^{asws} said that she went and brought him until she made him to sit on the road until his brothers passed by and he went home with them. When his father saw him, he began to feel love for him in his heart. He then lived as long as Allah^{azwj} wanted. The Imam^{asws} has said that one day when his brothers were carving idols Ibrahim^{asws} picked the adze, took a piece of wood and carved an idol of the shape which they had never seen before. Azar said to his mother: 'I hope we can receive goodness by the blessing of this son of yours'. He (Ibrahim^{asws}) picked up the adze (that he wanted). He broke the idol that he had carved. His father expressed intense shock and asked him. 'Why did you break it?' Ibrahim^{as} asked: 'What you want to do with it?' Azar said: 'People worship it'. Ibrahim^{as} then asked: 'Do you worship what you yourself carve?' Azar said to his mother: 'This is the one through whose hands our kingdom will be ruined.'¹³⁰

'I once visited Abu 'Abd Allah^{asws} and informed him of the birth of my son. He asked, 'Why do you not name him Muhammad?' I replied: 'I have already done so'. The Imam^{asws} then said: 'You must not beat up a (child with the name of) Muhammad and do not abuse him. Allah^{azwj} will make him the delight to your eyes during your life time as well as a truthful successor for you'. I then asked: 'I pray to Allah^{azwj} to keep my soul in service for your cause, in what kind of profession should I involve him'?

The Imam^{asws} said: 'If you keep him away from five kinds of professions then instruct him in whatever you like. You must not train him in money changing business; he will not remain safe from unlawful interest. You must not teach him selling coffins; such people become happy with the coming of plague when such disease is around. You must not teach him in selling foods; they do not remain safe from stockpiling (hoarding) food. You should not instruct him to be a butcher; it reduces one's kindness. You must not instruct him in how to sell slaves; the Messenger of Allah^{saww} has said: 'The worst people are who indulge in human trade'.¹³⁴
