Other Titles by Giovanni Papini: - EPB.Cute! It's cute! Off the record: "I think we could probably make something else happen, too." And so it begins. The Mercury Press's 2009 "Off The Record" program begins. A revival of the classic "Off the Record" program, conducted in each month's Mercury Press. The format and approach are simple, and we're looking forward to making it work -- for all the enthusiastic young students in the audience, for the seniors who said, "I used to love that Off the Record," and for the hundreds of people who came by to learn more about this project as it evolves. And, of course, for you. You may or may not be a Mercury Press contributor, but you will always be a "Mercury" (proud to be, we know it!). You'll see regulars, like me, who will be joining this project on a monthly basis. You'll see special guests, like the fabulous Jennie Carver from C.S.I.A. -- She'll be bringing us all the latest "Made in Canada" stories. But even more, you'll be able to sit in on our conversations with artists, musicians and writers, not only to hear about their craft, but also to share in their day-to-day trials, tribulations and triumphs. And, for those who love to read and research, there are always regular and special features to read. You'll see my interviews with Expos greats, like Don Waddell and Butch Bouxvert, and perhaps the likes
