A: You can use regex: var regex = new

Regex(@"No_exports_are_visible|Caution_long_run_time_interaction_required", RegexOptions.Compiled); //Find the position where the match is located var position = regex.Match("A long time ago"); //Replace the characters in the string string newStr = regex.Replace(stringToMatch, "whatever"); This will result: "A long whatever run time interaction whatever" To replace just the number after the square brackets: string newStr = regex.Replace("[whatever]", "whatever"); This will result: "A long whatever run time interaction whatever" You may need to add \s* and .* and the like to make the regex less greedy. Police ask witnesses of international incident to come forward Police are asking for the public's help in the investigation of a reported international incident on the Fort Bragg Military Installation in Faulkner County that resulted in gunshots fired and one man injured. Faulkner County Sheriff's Office deputies say a stolen vehicle was parked near 815 F Street in the front parking lot of the Military Instruction Center on March 27. The report was received just after midnight March 27. A suspect approached the vehicle, fired several gunshots, and ran away. One of the gunshots struck a man, who was taken to an area hospital. He was treated and released. The suspect was described as a man between 18 to 20 years of age, approximately 5 feet 10 inches tall, with a slight build. He wore a blue-checked flannel shirt with a red bandanna around his forehead, blue jeans, white sneakers with yellow tops, and was last seen running away from the area in a white Toyota Tacoma. If you have information on the incident or suspect, call the Faulkner County Sheriff's Office at 473-5747., and they can assist in short notice with bare hands. In the event they can't help, they'll keep you company, look after you and bring you a cuppa. If people go on sounding off, they'll understand and leave you be. If you're feeling distressed, they'll get people to help you.
They don't talk, they just listen. This is very much a volunteer cause. Staff aren't paid and they'll
